Dining

Nikolai's Roof

Nikolai's Roof®, an Atlanta tradition in fine dining for over 25 years with a Mobile Travel Guide Four Star rating, has been awarded the best restaurant in downtown Atlanta by Zagat's Guide for 2005 and 2006. Chef Olivier De Busschere serves innovative cuisine utilizing the freshest of ingredients from around the globe. Wine pairings are available with the service of our own expertly trained team. Our Pointe of View lounge on the 28th floor is a great way to start the evening. The Best views of the Atlanta Skyline await.

MarketPlace

Marketplace is a quick-serve café serving gourmet food items, artesian sandwiches and salads, ice cream novelties, half-bottles of wine and premium beers. Starbucks coffee is available, as well as meals-to-go for your flight or drive home.

Southern Elements

Bask in chic and contemporary surroundings. Dine on traditional Southern Cuisine with a contemporary twist. Have a cocktail while relaxing in the distinguished Lobby Lounge or catch the latest news and sports on our large screen HDTVs.

Trader Vic's

Experience the tropics at Trader Vic's®, the creator of the world-famous Mai Tai. Palm trees, tiki torches, and Polynesian wood carvings complete the exotic environment. Savory cuisine awaits you, prepared in giant Chinese smoke ovens by Chef Michael Broderick. Located on our Lower Lobby Level, you'll feel like you've escaped to the South Seas.

Mai Tai Bar at Trader Vic's

Adjacent to Trader Vic's on the lower level of the hotel and features refreshing Polynesian potables. Known as the creator of the world-famous Mai Tai, the restaurant has an extensive list of island-inspired cocktails, including the PeachTree Punch—a Trader Vic's signature cocktail created and inspired by the Atlanta location.
