Dining

Drum Room Lounge

The Drum Room first opened in 1941. It has hosted such celebrities as Benny Goodman, Glenn Miller, Frank Sinatra, Patsy Cline and more. Open daily, this casual lounge/nightclub has a fun, laid back atmosphere. Happy hour from 4:30 pm to 6:30 pm. Entertainment on Friday and Saturday evenings.

Walnut Room

The Walnut Room was beautifully restored to the 1940's with the original stained glass windows and rich wood columns. Offering breakfast daily and American cuisine with a healthy choice menu, it is also the ideal setting for private business or social events.

The Drum Room

Originally opened in 1940 the historic Drum Room restaurant is noted for its famous visitors throughout the years. The Drum Room was a regular stop for jazz legends and many other types of entertainers. The room is a historic site and a first class restaurant. The Drum Room offers lunch and dinner featuring hand cut chops and steaks prepared fresh daily in an upscale casual dining environment. Live entertainment is provided on Friday and Saturday evenings. The restaurant is conveniently located off the lobby. See you soon in the Drum Room. Check our web site for entertainment schedules and menus.
